The Guggenheim Museum's iconic Frank Lloyd Wright building offers an unusual variety of spaces for corporate members to entertain clients, colleagues, employees, and other guests. From the dramatic rotunda and state-of-the-art Peter B. Lewis Theater to the newly-opened restaurant, The Wright, corporate members have the exclusive opportunity to entertain their guests in one of the world's most recognizable buildings and premier cultural institutions.

Venue Details

- Multiple event spaces in the Museum that accommodate 30 to 300 guests for seated dinners and up to 1,000 guests for receptions.
- The Peter B. Lewis Theater seats 281 guests, the News Corporation New Media Theater accommodates up to 70 guests and the Aye Simon Reading Room, designed by Richard Meier, is a unique meeting space for 10 to 12 people.
- The Wright is an exciting new venue for corporate and social events. The unique and modern design includes full seating for up to 60 guests and is perfect for receptions of up to 75 guests. The Wright is available for evening events Sunday through Wednesday and for daytime events on Thursdays when the Museum is closed.
